W: Your red tie.

M: What's wrong with it?

W: Well, red was the color of last year. Now it's light blue. Fashion experts say the light color makes a man look confident and worthy of trust.

M: But I like red.

W: I know, but you'd better follow the fashion as you are having an interview on TV.

W: Well, I haven't decided yet. What are you going to order?

M: I think I'll have the roast chicken. They really make it well here.

W: I had roast chicken yesterday when I ate out with Shelly.

M: Their beef steak is good, too. You can have it served with beans and mushrooms.

W: But I'm not that hungry. Is the fried fish or the seafood salad good?

M: Never had them before. Maybe if you get the steak, we could share.

W: That sounds like a good idea.

W: Yes, I'd like to get some information about the summer courses at the English Training Centre. Can you tell me the starting and finishing time of the courses, please?

M: Yes. The courses begin on July 15th and run until August 20th.

W: Right, and what courses will we take?

M: You have varieties of courses. You have listening and speaking, reading and writing courses. There are also classes in audio-visual training and chances to use the language laboratory.

W: And at what time will the courses be held?

M: Most of them are in the morning and there are only a few classes in the afternoon.

W: Do you have a timetable?

M: I'm sorry. My colleague isn't here at the moment, so I can't get one for you.

W: That's OK. And when will the final exam be held?

M: At the end of the term.

W: Hi, Joe! Many people in our department are leaving for Thanksgiving. What are you going to do?

M: I think I'll just stay at home. I may see some friends and watch a few DVDs. And I probably would go to the Ottawa Car Show. What about you, Ariel? What's your plan?

W: I am going to do some traveling with my family.

M: Oh, where to?

W: Toronto. And on our way, we're going to visit my aunt, Valley, in Kingston.

M: That's exciting. How long do you plan to stay?

W: Two days. I have a get-together party with my college friends on the tenth in Toronto. Oh, I'm afraid I've got to go now. My husband is waiting for me. And we'll have to pick up Daniel from school. Have a nice holiday, Joe!

M: Thank you. You too!

M: Hello, everyone. Welcome to our program. I'm Lucas. Today, we will talk about future. If you are ready to plan for a successful future, I have a few suggestions to help you get started.

First, go to a place where you can think for as long as you want without being disturbed. Then think about what you want your life to be like. I clearly remember I did that on my grandparents' farm on a bright, warm afternoon when I was younger.

Second, think about what you are good at and what you really enjoy. I believe feeling happy always comes first. So imagine an activity you would be happy to do every day, even if you weren't getting paid to do it. I love using my pen to record life stories. It helps me relax.

Third, write down your goals, a list of achievements or things you want to do. Maybe you love animals and want to be a vet like my sister, or maybe you love looking at the stars and want to become an astronaut like my uncle. Having your goals written clearly on paper will help you remember to stay focused and work towards them.

Fourth, start your future. Start working hard towards your goals right away.

Thank you for listening.
